

Stanislaus Humanists

science | art | compassion

Site search

Join | Renew | Donate

HOME ABOUT US ▶ ABOUT HUMANISM ▶ EVENTS NEWS MEMBERSHIP CONTACT

Game Night

Welcome to Stanislaus Humanists!

So what is Humanism anyway?

In a nutshell, Humanism is a worldview which holds that reason and science are the best ways to understand the world around us, and that dignity and compassion should be the basis for how you act toward someone else.

Humanism is naturalistic. We rely on our senses and the reasonable inferences we can draw from our experiences. We have come to the conclusion that there is no credible evidence or argument for the existence of God, the supernatural, or an afterlife. We are living the only life we'll have in the only world we know about. The responsibility for the choices we make is ours and ours alone.

Visit the About Humanism page to learn more.

Recent News

American Humanist Association, TheHumanist.com
Statement on Department of Defense's Reduced List ... "Blatant erasure of atheist & humanist Americans serving in the military." The post Statement on Department of Defe...
American Humanist Association to Host Nationwide D... 100 community events across the country to put empathy into action. The post American Humanist Association to Host Natio...
American Humanists Condemn Trump Administration At... The AHA stands proudly in solidarity with the SPLC. The post American Humanists Condemn Trump Administration Attack on C...
Federal Judge Sides With Humanists on Monumental 1... "State capitals should be welcoming to all citizens." The post Federal Judge Sides With Humanists on Monumental 10 Comma...

powered by Surfing Waves

Upcoming Events

No upcoming events

All Events

QUICK LINKS

Membership | Events | Contact Us | Governance

© Stanislaus Humanists Inc.

FOLLOW OUR ACTIVITIES

MISSION

HISTORY

BOARD

About us

Stanislaus Humanists is...

- a community of thoughtful individuals who enjoy the humanities, share information, and refine each person's understanding of ethical freedom.
- committed to influencing policy-making bodies at local, state, national, and global levels.
- actively conducting community service in the Central Valley region.
- a chapter of the American Humanist Association, a 501(c)(3) organization, and all donations to us are tax deductible.
- working to build a humanist center where our community can host educational events and socialize.

Mission

History

Board

Not a member yet?

Take a peek at the seven Humanist principles and see if we're a good fit!

Humanist Principles

News

There are no important news for now

Mission Statement

Humanists strive for a society guided by reason, empathy, and our growing knowledge of the world.

The mission of the Stanislaus Humanists is to advance Humanism, an ethical and life-affirming philosophy, free of belief in supernatural forces. We advocate for a secular society in which no one's beliefs or rituals are imposed on anyone else. Humanists strive for a society guided by reason, empathy, and our growing knowledge of the world. We encourage people to live informed and meaningful lives which aspire to the greater good.

Ready to Join?

Explore the seven Humanist Principles and see if we're a good fit!

Humanist Principles

QUICK LINKS

Membership | Events | Contact Us | Governance

FOLLOW OUR ACTIVITIES

History

Local nonbelievers started a group on Meetup.com which became known as Stanislaus Skeptics, and from 2009-2011 they held events and started to grow in numbers. Due to a variety of reasons the original founders were unable to continue managing the group, and the newer members wanted a group that embraced a secular humanist philosophy. Stanislaus Humanists was formed in 2012 and continued building interest on Meetup.com

On November 20, 2013, Stanislaus Humanists became a chapter of the American Humanist Association, a 501(c)(3) organization, and shortly thereafter Articles of Incorporation were filed with the state of California. Stanislaus Humanists, Inc., is organized as a California public benefit not-for-profit corporation, and we are registered as a charitable trust with the California Attorney General. Our first official annual meeting was held in January 2014, during which our first Board of Directors were elected and our first officers were installed.

Stanislaus Humanists is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization, and a chapter of the American Humanist Association.

Through the years we have participated in a variety of community service opportunities including caring for the homeless, river cleanups, and assisting refugees. In 2018 and 2019 we adopted Pathways, a transitional housing program for young adults who have aged out of the foster care system, as our service project. We focused on bringing them household and personal items and ensured all the residents had Christmas gifts.

In the COVID-19 era, we continue to support our community by gathering online utilizing video meeting technology.

Ready to Join?

Explore the seven Humanist Principles and see if we're a good fit!

Our Board

Directors are elected each January and serve a three year term. All dues-paying members are eligible to vote for new board members.

A Message from the Board Chair

Freedom Baerheim

Board Chair

January 2023

I'm so happy you're here! We believe in people, in being a part of our community, and in making new connections. We welcome new perspectives and embrace diversity.

Please explore the site, especially the About Humanism pages because that's where we lay out what drives and motivates us. If you have any questions about Humanism, you're welcome to ask me or any other Board Member. If you're ready to jump in and become a member, we'll welcome you with open arms.

We would also love to meet with you, so be sure to check out the Events page. Register for one of our upcoming events and come introduce yourself!

Already a member?

Consider joining the Board of Directors

BOD FAQs

Board of Directors

Todd Lamb

View details

Anton Boyadjian

View details

Lorraine Nilson

View details

Carl Becker

View details

John Schattenburg

View details

Brandilyn Mitchell

View details

Frank Brown

View details

Freedom Baerheim

View details

Ready to Join?

Explore the seven Humanist Principles and see if we're a good fit!

Humanist Principles

QUICK LINKS

Membership | Events | Contact Us | Governance

© Stanislaus Humanists Inc.

FOLLOW OUR ACTIVITIES

About Humanism

Humanism is...

a progressive philosophy of life that, without supernaturalism, affirms our ability and responsibility to lead ethical lives of personal fulfillment that aspire to the greater good of humanity.

The lifestance of Humanism—guided by reason, inspired by compassion, and informed by experience—encourages us to live life well and fully. It evolved through the ages and continues to develop through the efforts of thoughtful people who recognize that values and ideals, however carefully wrought, are subject to change as our knowledge and understandings advance.

These seven principles are part of an ongoing effort to manifest in clear and positive terms the conceptual boundaries of Humanism, not what we must believe but a consensus of what we do believe. It is in this sense that we affirm the following:

Science
Ethics
Society

FAQs

Taken from the American Humanist Association's guiding document, Humanism and Its Aspirations.

Ready to join?

Submit your application now!

Join

conceptual boundaries of Humanism, not what we must believe but a consensus of what we do believe. It is in this sense that we affirm the following:

Science
Ethics
Society

FAQs

Taken from the American Humanist Association's guiding document, Humanism and Its Aspirations.

News

There is no important news for now

QUICK LINKS

Membership | Events | Contact Us | Governance

FOLLOW OUR ACTIVITIES

Humanism & science

Knowledge of the world is derived by observation, experimentation, and rational analysis.

Humanists find that science is the best method for determining this knowledge as well as for solving problems and developing beneficial technologies. We also recognize the value of new departures in thought, the arts, and inner experience—each subject to analysis by critical intelligence.

Humanists accept our lives as all and enough.

Humans are an integral part of nature, the result of unguided evolutionary change.

Humanists recognize nature as self-existing. We accept our life as all and enough, distinguishing things as they are from things as we might wish or imagine them to be. We welcome the challenges of the future, and are drawn to and undaunted by the yet to be known.

Taken from the American Humanist Association's guiding document, Humanism and Its Aspirations.

Ready to Join?

Submit your application now!

Join Now!

Humanism & ethics

Ethical values are derived from human need and interest as tested by experience.

Humanists ground values in human welfare shaped by human circumstances, interests, and concerns and extended to the global ecosystem and beyond. We are committed to treating each person as having inherent worth and dignity, and to making informed choices in a context of freedom consonant with responsibility.

Humanists treat others as having inherent worth.

Life's fulfillment emerges from individual participation in the service of humane ideals.

We aim for our fullest possible development and animate our lives with a deep sense of purpose, finding wonder and awe in the joys and beauties of human existence, its challenges and tragedies, and even in the inevitability and finality of death. Humanists rely on the rich heritage of human culture and the lifescape of Humanism to provide comfort in times of want and encouragement in times of plenty.

Taken from the American Humanist Association's guiding document, Humanism and Its Aspirations.

Humanism & society

Humans are social by nature and find meaning in relationships.

Humanists long for and strive toward a world of mutual care and concern, free of cruelty and its consequences, where differences are resolved cooperatively without resorting to violence. The joining of individuality with interdependence enriches our lives, encourages us to enrich the lives of others, and inspires hope of attaining peace, justice, and opportunity for all.

Humanists uphold human rights and civil liberties.

Working to benefit society maximizes individual happiness.

Progressive cultures have worked to free humanity from the brutalities of mere survival and to reduce suffering, improve society, and develop global community. We seek to minimize the inequities of circumstance and ability, and we support a just distribution of nature's resources and the fruits of human effort so that as many as possible can enjoy a good life.

Upholding equality and diversity protects the well-being of others and the planet.

Humanists are concerned for the well being of all, are committed to diversity, and respect those of differing yet humane views. We work to uphold the equal enjoyment of human rights and civil liberties in an open, secular society and maintain it is a civic duty to participate in the democratic process and a planetary duty to protect nature's integrity, diversity, and beauty in a secure, sustainable manner.

Taken from the American Humanist Association's guiding document, Humanism and Its Aspirations.

FAQs

Are Humanists trying to destroy religion and replace it with secularism?

No. There is no conspiracy by humanists to force people to reject religion. We do take philosophical issue with beliefs of religious followers. However, what does concern us is when religious believers attempt to use the power of the government to force their beliefs upon the rest of society. As it has been shown throughout history, no one benefits when religious belief and government power mix. We want a government that neither favors religion nor discriminates against it. For our government to best serve the diverse needs of the American people, it must remain neutral in matters as personal as religion.

What's the difference between secular humanists and religious humanists?

While many religious people have adopted the term "humanist" to describe themselves, this is confusing because they still believe that moral choices must be grounded in obedience to a nonhuman authority. If, by some argument or revelation, they come to believe that their god wants them to work against human interests, would they be compelled to comply with their new understanding? We appreciate that religious humanitarians have similar goals, and we consider them valuable allies in building coalitions and collaborating on joint projects. However, Humanists believe that the ultimate grounding of moral choices must be the application of human reason to human needs.

What's the difference between Humanists and Unitarian Universalists?

The UU affirms seven guiding principles which are roughly equivalent to Humanist ideals stated on our home page; however, you will find a difference in the tone and emphasis between the two groups. Both the UU and Humanists will not allow any hurtful or hateful speech to be published from their lecterns or presses. The UU, however, encourages and honors beliefs and traditions that only seem to be supported by claims of ancient authority and usage. Humanists tend to challenge such beliefs and traditions and ask for reasonable arguments and sound evidence to support them. Because of this difference, you'll find that the atmosphere of UU congregations feels a bit more like a church, synagogue, temple, or mosque. Humanist groups feel more like an academic group devoted to secular learning and pastimes.

Ready to join?

Submit your application now!

Join

Events

We hold a number of recurring monthly events including book club, virtual happy hour, and brunch meetings. You can find details and register for events below.

Any member or regular attender is welcome to suggest or host an event. Please contact us to discuss the details and get it on the calendar.

Photo by Samantha Gades on Unsplash

Upcoming events

MONTH: AUGUST 2026

 Switch to List View

WEEK	MONTH	YEAR	< PREVIOUS MONTH	TODAY	NEXT MONTH >
Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday	Sunday
27	28	29	30	31	Aug 1	2

WEEK	MONTH	YEAR	< PREVIOUS MONTH	TODAY	NEXT MONTH >
Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday	Sunday
27	28	29	30	31	Aug 1	2
3	4	5	6	7	8	9
10	11	12	13	14	15	16
17	18	19	20	21	22	23
24	25	26	27	28	29	30
31	Sep 1	2	3	4	5	6

QUICK LINKS

Membership | Events | Contact Us | Governance

© Stanislaus Humanists Inc.

FOLLOW OUR ACTIVITIES

Coming Soon!

Humanitas is a Latin term meaning ability and desire – getting along with each other and helping each other along. Brazilian Humanists are people without superstition or superstitious beliefs, who come together to better the quality of life in our homes, our community, and around the world. Our compassion extends to all nations and to all living things. We hope this newsletter creates a supportive environment where people can address and share insightful analysis, positive for human expansion, and promotion of human science-informed policies.

IN THIS ISSUE»

HUMANISM IN ACTION PAGE 1

STRAIGHT PRIDE PAGE 2A3

"THE FAMILY" REVIEW PAGE 4

ISRAEL LOBBY PAGE 6

EVENTS PAGE 7

We're always looking for new content – articles, reviews, commentary, pictures, poems, events. Send submissions to: BrazilianHumanists@gmail.com, or send a hard copy to: 1701 Kinross Ave., Modesto, CA 95201

MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIR

In the previous newsletter I put out a challenge to become more involved with Brazilian Humanists, so today I'm checking in. How did you do?

Did you go to a new event? Have you introduced yourself to someone you didn't previously know? Did you officially join the organization? Have you made a one-time donation or set up a recurring one? Will summer be here, and we have so many opportunities for you! We'll need volunteers in the fireworks booth—you can find a sign-up link below. Humanitas 101 will be starting soon, see page 2 for more information. Check our page 6 for a calendar of our regular events and join our Facebook and Meetup pages for additional opportunities, including our monthly Activities Helping the Humanist Growers.

I'm looking forward to seeing you! ■

HUMANISM IN ACTION

FREEDOM BAIERHEIM

On any typical day we can open the newspaper, look online, or turn on the television and see something that upsets us. Most of the time this will result in some sort of emotional reaction, possibly followed by some discussion on the matter, and then we usually continue to go on about our daily routines. However, what if on a such day, the reaction could lead to something else? Something that at first might seem like a small thing, but could turn out to be something more? Maybe even life changing? This is exactly what happened to Chris Holland.

Chris, a long time humanist, and a blue collar worker, happened upon an article that was speaking to him. An organization claiming to promote love and Christianity was going to host a Straight Pride Parade in his hometown in Modesto California. Puzzled by this, he decided to check out the organization's website and discovered they were masquerading as a "Christian" group, but really they promoted white supremacy and disdain for the LGBTQ community.

Having grown up in a very conservative town in Kentucky before he settled down in California, he knew first hand how people of different color and sexual orientations can be treated. Treated by those who claimed to have good Christian intentions only to use that as an excuse to persecute and exclude. Now as an adult, he knew he couldn't just stand by and watch this parade mock all that the Gay Pride community had worked hard for toward equality. He went online and decided to announce his intentions to protest.

It was a seemingly small thing to do in his eyes. He was not alone, who were also aware of the parade, would have had the same reaction as him. He posted a protest event page on Facebook, calling it PRISM (Pride, Solidarity, and Multi-Culturalism), expressing his to be one of other similar persons and waited. Waited for people to respond, and respond they

CONTINUED NEXT PAGE

Humanitas is a Latin term meaning ability and desire – getting along with each other and helping each other along. Brazilian Humanists are people without superstition or superstitious beliefs, who come together to better the quality of life in our homes, our community, and around the world. Our compassion extends to all nations and to all living things. We hope this newsletter creates a supportive environment where people can address and share insightful analysis, positive for human expansion, and promotion of human science-informed policies.

IN THIS ISSUE»

FIREWORKS PAGE 1

HUMANISM 101 PAGE 2

AMETOO PAGE 3

FIREWORKS PAGE 4

EVENTS PAGE 5

We're always looking for new content – articles, reviews, commentary, pictures, poems, events. Send submissions to: BrazilianHumanists@gmail.com, or send a hard copy to: 1701 Kinross Ave., Modesto, CA 95201

MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIR

In the previous newsletter I put out a challenge to become more involved with Brazilian Humanists, so today I'm checking in. How did you do?

Did you go to a new event? Have you introduced yourself to someone you didn't previously know? Did you officially join the organization? Have you made a one-time donation or set up a recurring one? Will summer be here, and we have so many opportunities for you! We'll need volunteers in the fireworks booth—you can find a sign-up link below. Humanitas 101 will be starting soon, see page 2 for more information. Check our page 4 for a calendar of our regular events and join our Facebook and Meetup pages for additional opportunities, including our monthly Activities Helping the Humanist Growers.

I'm looking forward to seeing you! ■

FIREWORKS!

BRANDY BROWN

Four years ago an opportunity fell in our lap—a non-profit organization had decided not to have a fireworks booth in Hilmar, leaving an opening for a new group to make itself known in the area. None of the other organizations in town wanted to do it, so the Brazilian Humanists were approached with the idea. While we were asked not to have a booth in 2015 to make it happen, we did sign on for a 2016 booth on Lander and First, and we wound up raising over $5,000. Last year in the same spot, we raised over $14,000. It's our biggest fundraiser, and now it's time to do it again!

Yes, it's in Hilmar. Yes, it's hot. Yes, it's dusty. But it is also a lot of fun, and a great way to get to know our neighbor. We're got a portable air conditioner and plenty of water.

There's a Walgreens across the street if you find yourself in need of poppers. Having a fireworks booth goes as far as the public eye, giving us a bigger opportunity to introduce ourselves to our community than we normally have. Plus it will help push Brazilian Humanists toward our goal of having our own meeting space! What's not to love!

Bluffs this year are in 4 hour increments. We are asking every member to please sign up for 2 shifts. While the Fourth of July is the middle of the work this year, we are in need of supportive shifts the most. Help us reach our goal of $15,000 again! Check out the schedule and sign up for 2 shifts (or more)! We will be operating from June 28th to July 4th. <http://signingup.com/signup/2018> ■

Humanitas is a Latin term meaning ability and desire – getting along with each other and helping each other along. Brazilian Humanists are people without superstition or superstitious beliefs, who come together to better the quality of life in our homes, our community, and around the world. Our compassion extends to all nations and to all living things. We hope this newsletter creates a supportive environment where people can address and share insightful analysis, positive for human expansion, and promotion of human science-informed policies.

IN THIS ISSUE»

HUMANISTS DONATIONS PAGE 1

DISTRICT DEMOCRATS PAGE 2

PEACE LIGHT PAGE 3

WHAT'S IN A NAME? PAGE 4

EVENTS PAGE 6

We're always looking for new content – articles, reviews, commentary, pictures, poems, events. Send submissions to: BrazilianHumanists@gmail.com, or send a hard copy to: 1701 Kinross Ave., Modesto, CA 95201

MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIR

As I begin my third year as Board Chair, I find myself imagining our future. I'm concerned with building and growing our organization. I'm worried about expansion and loss of interest. I'm thinking about ways to reach out to the community at large and new youth.

It doesn't really matter what I imagine or want because as a young organization we are limited by resources, financial and personnel. That's why we need YOU.

Active, committed, devoted members are the key to our growth. Individuals like you who attend events, commit to regular giving, and volunteer at our events will carry us forward.

So, let's each commit to doing something to build the group! Because a day-paying member, that's giving regularly, attend a new event, or volunteer at an event. Or do all of those! ■

HUMANISTS TEAMING UP WITH CENTER FOR HUMAN SERVICES' PATHWAYS

STEPHANIE MARSDEN

I'm a daughter of last year's annual members' donated household goods to Pathways, a local non-profit organization that helps homeless young adults, and Brazilian Humanists purchased a refrigerator for the organization. At that time, the Board decided to adopt Pathways as our 2018 focus charity.

Pathways provides apartments and practical life training while helping these young people find jobs and start for independent living. From their website: "Pathways is a transitional living and supportive services program for young adults ages 18-21 years. The program serves homeless young adults, many of whom are fleeing from past poverty, who have limited financial and emotional support."

Donation drives will be held quarterly. Our last collection took place March 18 at our Clifton Ranch event at Queen Bee's, 1120 14th Street, Modesto. Thank you for making a difference in the lives of these young adults! Current needs include:

CONTINUED PAGE 7

March 2016

16-03_humanitas.pdf

Humanitas is a Latin word meaning study and learning - getting along with each other and helping each other along. Humanitas as a group, without separation or separation itself, who come together to better the quality of life in our homes, our community, and around the world. Our mission is to offer a variety of options. We consider what it means to build institutional legacies, help our neighbors, improve our relationships, and even consider our ordinary choices.

EDITOR'S NOTE

I know I've been a while, and you forget we had a newsletter right? Well, we're back and we have a great message for you. In this issue our contributors explore the kinds of impacts we can make in our communities. It's great that we're all skeptical and extend, but when we go from there? Our mission is to offer a variety of options. We consider what it means to build institutional legacies, help our neighbors, improve our relationships, and even consider our ordinary choices.

This issue also provides a great look at some of what we've been doing this past Humanitas 101 and now 102 have offered an excellent forum for all of us to discuss and explore more in depth where it is we agree and where we disagree. We've also had an incredible response to our new Humanitas Humanitas activities which have opened doors for our group to truly get involved in the community.

So check out our calendar and we hope to see you all out there in 2017!

IN THIS ISSUE:

HUMANISM 102	PAGE 1
HUMANITARIANS	PAGE 2
DINNER TALKS	PAGE 3
PERSONAL GROWTH	PAGE 4
POEM	PAGE 4
GAZARD	PAGE 5
REES	PAGE 5
EVENTS	PAGE 6

We're always looking for new content - articles, reviews, commentary, poems, photos, events. Send submissions to Humanitas@humanitas.org, or send a hard copy to: 1105 Keston Ave, Modesto, CA 95318

CONTINUED PAGE 4

January 2015

15-01_humanitas.pdf

Humanitas is a Latin word meaning study and learning - getting along with each other and helping each other along. Humanitas as a group, without separation or separation itself, who come together to better the quality of life in our homes, our community, and around the world. Our mission is to offer a variety of options. We consider what it means to build institutional legacies, help our neighbors, improve our relationships, and even consider our ordinary choices.

IN THIS ISSUE:

DARWIN DAY	PAGE 1
ELECTION FAQ	PAGE 2
CANDIDATE STATEMENTS	PAGE 3
DIET & CLIMATE	PAGE 4
EVENTS	PAGE 5

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

I have been an exciting first year for the Stanford Humanitas, and as we launch into our second year I would like to extend a special thank you to all of our members who help to make our chapter of the AHA an active, welcoming organization to be a part of.

At the beginning of 2014 we established our small but growing group as an officially recognized 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, creating our first board of directors in the process. This has allowed us to begin generating, saving, and expending funds for current and future special projects. These projects, such as our first for the Modern 4th of July parade and our future Humanitas Hall, help us give a face and a home to Humanitas in our area.

As we move into 2015 we look forward to our first Board of Directors election which you can read more about on the following pages. We are also extremely excited to be co-hosting our first Darwin Day celebration (complete with cake!) in collaboration with our friends The Stanford Arts Alliance and FirstThinkers. Check out our calendar on page 1 for a full list of monthly activities. We look forward to seeing lots of new and familiar faces at all our events in 2015.

Sincerely,
The Newsletter Team

FROM FAITH TO REASON FEBRUARY 7, 4-7 PM

DAVID DISJIN

For the first time, the Stanford Arts Alliance and FirstThinkers and the Stanford Humanitas will be co-hosting an event that focuses on the life of Charles Darwin and the transition from faith to reason.

The event, held at the garage near the Mantecca Public Library, is a family friendly and will offer the public an opportunity to explore the scientific contributions made by Darwin that have changed our understanding of life on this planet.

Two guest speakers, Jerry DeWitt from Los Angeles and Ryan Bell from Los Angeles, will provide their genuine and personal story of faith

November 2014

14-11_humanitas.pdf

Humanitas is a Latin word meaning study and learning - getting along with each other and helping each other along. Humanitas as a group, without separation or separation itself, who come together to better the quality of life in our homes, our community, and around the world. Our mission is to offer a variety of options. We consider what it means to build institutional legacies, help our neighbors, improve our relationships, and even consider our ordinary choices.

IN THIS ISSUE:

SACRAMENTO SUNDAY ASSEMBLY	PAGE 1
HORSE (A POEM)	PAGE 2
PAINTING YOUR LAWN	PAGE 3
EVENTS	PAGE 4

OUTGOING MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIR

It's been a year since we organized our group as a chapter of the AHA, aiming to make ethical models more visible in our community. We built big corporate chairs for what is basically a child with a piggy bank. However, I am encouraged by the slow but steady growth as new friends make new friends and our web of fellow travelers grows.

This year we've focused on building a community and generating a regular schedule of things to do. In 2015, I hope we become more politically active, doing community service, increasing our visibility, and encouraging others to get involved with donations of time, talent, and money. I look forward to the new ideas and energy that the Board will bring in the coming year.

With warm regards,
Troy Sperry, Chair, Stanford Humanitas

SACRAMENTO'S FIRST SUNDAY ASSEMBLY

FREEDOM BAERHEIM

Saturday 26, 7:30 AM, Sunday morning, the sound of sleeping in late and waking up to the smell of waffles and coffee, I was sleeping around a desk, when I woke up to see that I was not alone in I dream. By then, I was not the door ready to start the machine drive to Sacramento.

It was the launch of Sacramento's first Sunday Assembly. Though I had prepared to go for a few weeks, I found myself wondering why I was doing this. Why would a Sunday Assembly be important to me? On for that matter, why it would be important for anyone who has given up their religious life just a church service without god, right? I felt I had caused my Sundays off now that I no longer believed.

By then, I made my way to the Reason Center. Right away I noticed how packed the parking lot was. I saw people dressed in their Sunday best

We're always looking for new content - articles, reviews, commentary, poems, photos, events. Send submissions to Humanitas@humanitas.org, or send a hard copy to: 1105 Keston Ave, Modesto, CA 95318

Ready to join?

Home > Membership

Membership

Rates

- Individual: $24
- Couples: $36

Membership runs from February 1 through January 31 and is pro-rated when joining mid-year.

Membership entitles you to attend Board of Directors meetings, vote for Board members during the Annual Meeting, receive the latest issue of Humanitas (our newsletter), and become a member of the Board. Membership also gives you access to our exclusive discussion forum.

Before applying for membership, we ask that you read the following principles to make sure that you agree with our philosophy. Visit the About Humanism pages for an in-depth look at each principle, or click on the icons to view a specific topic.

Photo by Hudson Hintze on Unsplash

Humanist Principles

Knowledge

We hold that knowledge of the world is derived by observation, experimentation, and rational analysis.

Nature

We understand humans are an integral part of nature, the result of unguided evolutionary change.

Ethics

We think ethical values should be derived from human needs and interests as tested by experience.

Fulfillment

We find fulfillment in our lives from individual participation in the service of humane ideals.

Relationships

We are social by nature and find meaning in relationships.

Service

We believe working to benefit society maximizes our individual happiness.

Well-Being

We recognize that upholding equality and diversity protects the well-being of others and the planet.

Not yet a member?

Join us now

Home > Contact

Contact us

Mail

Stanislaus Humanists
PO Box 4476
Modesto, CA 95352

E-mail

info@StanislausHumanists.org

Find us on social media

QUICK LINKS

Membership | Events | Contact Us | Governance

FOLLOW OUR ACTIVITIES

